City To Continue Garbage Service To Businesses

ATTEND ELBA COUNCIL MEETING... Officials from the Waste-Away Company (front row) and Elba merchants were present at Monday's meeting of the Elba City Council to discuss problems with the proposed change in garbage pickup. The merchants won the battle with the city and will continue to be served by city garbage crews.

The Elba City Council met Monday evening and the only bit of good news got buried in the debate over the recently-approved contract to a private concern to pick up the garbage and trash in Elba.

Elba Hydro Inc. has been sold to Turbelco (owned by Michel Gobaud) of Chateaufort, France. Announcements were made of a check for $67,000 to be in the hands of the city of Elba by the latter part of this week.

Turbelco is a French firm that manufactures electric turbines. They have built 70 plants in the past three years, both in France and the U.S.

The garbage issue centered around the reports that Waste-Away representatives had been giving estimates of monthly cost to commercial and industrial accounts that were, in some cases, hundreds of times higher than that currently being charged by the city. Many reported their costs were rising to several hundred dollars plus added expense of site work and hook-up to sewer drains.

The City Council voted to accept a number of changes recommended by Mayor Bob English. The main item on that list was to cancel the part of the contract turning the collection of garbage and trash in the commercial district over to Waste-Away. After a lengthy and often heated discussion between council members and representatives of Waste-Away, the council voted 4-1 to accept the changes. Councilman Jack Prescott opposed the action and said he favored voiding the entire contract. However, with the latest vote, Waste-Away will begin collecting residential garbage on Monday, Nov. 3, as advertised in The Elba Clipper this week.

Prescott opened his discussion of the matter with an apology to the people of Elba. Waste-Away officials, etc. He said he, for one, hadn't looked into the matter closely enough before voting. He noted he had no idea the cost was going to shoot up so high on the local businesses. Prescott also opposed changing the section of the contract that allows the city to cancel the contract for any reason within 45 days. A change recommended by English would extend that time for ten days or more. Before the meeting adjourned but after the vote was taken, Prescott left the meeting saying it was "wrong and you folks are going to find out one day."

On Tuesday questions about the legality of changing the contract without taking new bids arose and were checked out with authorities. They received a verbal opinion from Montgomery that it was legal to remove the commercial accounts, but to make other changes would violate the Alabama bid law. At presstime it had not been made clear if Waste-Away and the City of Elba had a valid contract both would accept, or not.

The last official word was that Waste-Away would pick up the residential garbage and the City of Elba would continue picking up the commercial and industrial garbage as before with adjustments to be made in December based on cost estimates.

Coffee County Commission Hears Request For Tax Relief

The Coffee County Commission met in regular session on Monday, Oct. 27, at the courthouse in Enterprise and heard a building contractor request relief from the commission on the new 1-cent sales tax on all construction started prior to the adoption of the tax.

Mr. Gene Reynolds, representing a number of contractors, told the commission that contractors and sub-contractors would lose one percent of their material costs on current projects if the commission failed to give the builders some relief.

Reynolds explained the sales tax wasn't adopted when many projects now under construction were started and the extra tax couldn't be passed on to the buyer. He stated the relief would help the contractors save a large amount of money across the county, and gave as an example of construction now underway a new motel and shopping center in Enterprise. Reynolds stated the new sales tax could be added on to the cost of projects in the future, but would place a burden only on the contractor at this time.

The commission was in favor of granting contractors an exemption for construction underway at the time of the sales tax addition, but stated each contractor would have to provide documentation of the starting date of the construction and each case would have to be considered individually. The commission told Reynolds it would have to contact the state to see if such an exemption was lawful and only then would it consider any requests.

The meeting began at 9 a.m. and the first order of business was to open numerous bids on a variety of items.

Two bids were received for road signs with Vulcan Signs receiving the contract with a low bid against ABC Manufacturing.

Bids on plant mix and asphalt drew the largest number of bids with all three bidders receiving a portion of the contract. S&C Materials and Paving of Elba received the biggest portion of the contract as low bidder on hot bituminous pavement delivered to the jobsite; however, it, along with Couch and Wiregrass Construction, were all rewarded contracts for the purchase of pavement at the plant.

The purchase of pavement at the plant will be determined upon the site of the construction work and the distance of the plant from the site.

A number of bids were received on pipe, with each bid containing a large number of sizes on different pipes. The contract was split between Choctaw and Brown, each of which was low on all the sizes.

Other successful bidders included Southeast Materials Corp. on crushed stone and Koppers Co., Treated Timbers Products and Hill Wholesale Lumber on treated timber for use in the county's highway department.

County Health Officer Kenneth Ball reported on the success of the department's weatherization program over the past four years and told the commission the program had brought over $400,000 into the county from federal sources.

Ball stated that 371 homes in the county had been weatherized since the program originated in 1983, and that a total of $431,000 in federal funds had been received for the repairs. The program is available to elderly and low income households in the county and anyone wishing to check into the program should contact Ruth Mack at the Health Department on either Wednesday in Enterprise, or Friday in Elba. Proof of income is required.

In other action at Monday's meeting, the commission:

- Approved the minutes of the previous meeting as read;
- Rejected all bids on fencing material and agreed to re-submit bids to be opened at the next meeting;
- Approved to submit a grant application for a Community Development Block Grant for the possible use of constructing water systems at County Line, Roeton and Mt. Pleasant;
- Heard a request from a rural resident to place a school bus stop at an intersection for use in inclement weather;
- Was told the pan at the landfill was in need of repairs at an estimated cost of over $5,000;
- Postponed work on a ball field until spring, for the New Brockton Elementary School due to a backlog of work and problems with broken down equipment;
- Approved a request from the county engineer that all pipe requests be issued a permit with the understanding that the work would be done within two weeks;
- Agreed with Commissioner Eugene Bradley about the danger of the Charles Farris gully and expressed an urgency to the engineer for the project to be completed;
- Rescinded the approval given earlier for overtime pay for members of the probate judge's office; and
- Agreed to discuss a pay increase for county employees at a special budget meeting this week.

The next commission meeting will be on Monday, Nov. 10, at 9 a.m. in Enterprise.

Safety Precautions Urged For Halloween

The Alabama Poison Center believes that Halloween should be scary and fun, not scary and dangerous. But with the sinister foul play that tends to increase during the Halloween season, Halloween has indeed become a dangerous holiday.

Much of the danger can be avoided by taking the following safety precautions:

1. Feed your children before they go out trick-or-treating. They will be less likely to snack before you have a chance to inspect their candy.
2. Talk to your children about the importance of not eating their candy until you have had the chance to check it.
3. Parents should inspect all the "goodies." Do not allow your children to eat anything that (a) is unwrapped, (b) is not in its original wrapper, (c) has holes in the wrapper, (d) is homemade.
4. Cut fruit in half to check for foreign objects such as razors or needles.
5. Limit the trick-or-treating area to your own neighborhood.
6. Talk to your children about all trick-or-treaters.
7. Leave before dark so that children will be home earlier. The darkness may add to the "spookiness" of Halloween but it also adds to the danger.
8. Have the children wear something light or reflective on their costumes and trick-or-treat bag.

If you have any questions about your Halloween outing, suspect a problem or have a poison emergency, call the Alabama Poison Center (open 24 hours a day, 365 days of the year) 1-800-462-0800. All services are free.

Brainstorms

With Ferrin Cox

We've explored the idea of telephones and I realized he had the wrong number. My reaction was to tell him who he had reached and add, "I'm sorry, but you apparently have the wrong number." Well, I got a strong feeling for answering the telephone, since he wasn't calling me in the first place! I have heard folks fuss the phone company, their carelessness, etc., but never have I been blamed for this!

We got one of those invitations to visit Disney World earlier this month but didn't go. It was a sweetheart deal, with them picking up all the expenses including the flight to Orlando, but we didn't take them up on it. Must be getting older than we think, because those who did go returned home with praise for the treatment. The whole thing was to celebrate the birthday of Disney World.

We deeply love to fish at my house. That is - the boys and I do. We have been known to steal an hour after closing during the summer, or a day after the paper was published. We have even been caught camping on the river bank overnight. During the past year we have gotten so lay up something that we are vague on just how it is done. We did get in a little practice on survival, if ever we do get to go to fish again. One day last week I took a can of potted meat, some saline crackers and a bottle of hot sauce, stood in the middle of the kitchen and practiced eating on an all-day fishing trip. We can still do it, and for your information, that food was just as good as we remember it being. If our back had been hurting and our hands dirty, it would have been perfect.

The governor's race is finally coming to a head with the election set for next Tuesday. We keep hearing rumors that Graddick will call off his write-in campaign. We will see. If he does that one day this week - or maybe before you read this - we expect Hunt to get a flood of donations from folks wanting to be on the inside. Some are already hedging their investments by spreading their donations around. Whatever, it has been a tiring six months and we are glad it is about to be over.

Coffee County will be voting next Tuesday on a tobacco tax. It will be for the exclusive use of the fire departments of the county. We have heard little talk on this during the past 30 days, but we did hear some grumbling when it was first proposed. The complaints were that the money would be divided evenly with all departments getting the same amount of money. Enterprise, Elba and the rural departments getting exactly the same. The other was that there was no control except self-control, and the departments could buy whatever they need and those paying the tax would have no control. We buy no tobacco products so this has absolutely no effect on us. We do have some reservations about the control of just what is purchased by those presently doing the buying or the unknowns who might come ten years from now.

Wet-dry is on the ballot in Elba. We wrote months ago we would vote yes if certain conditions were included. They ain't and we are going to vote no. We still have no objections to package sales, because frankly we already have that but with no local tax. We don't want joints in Elba and presently we can't be sure we will not have them. The results, as we see it, is a tossup, and if it passes, it passes. We don't know which way our city government would go on the bars issue, and to be safe we will oppose any change and expect the tax money to come from some source.

Garbage pickup in Elba is still changing. Monday night the city council voted to keep the commercial and industrial collection as a city function but still contract out the residential service. The whole matter is still up in the air however because of conflicts with the bid law. They voted to make several other changes in the contract and have been told this violated the state bid law. The ball is in the court of the contractor now as to whether they will honor the residential pickup portion without the changes in the contract. At this writing Elba will continue picking up commercial garbage as always and Waste-Away will get the residential garbage, according to a schedule they are publishing in this issue of The Elba Clipper. Councilman Jack Prescott doesn't like the deal at all, has expressed his opinions strongly, and frankly we tend to agree with him.

Football is king in these parts on Friday nights and Saturdays. Elba was walking tall Friday night after a decisive defeat of always-strong Andalusia. Alabama was a bit embarrassed Saturday afternoon by Penn State, but as my Alabama student daughter said Sunday, "If we had to lose, I would rather it be them than anyone else play." We too like their play. It is good, a classy gentleman, and believes the boys are in college to get an education. Auburn won their game and it too was a one-sided affair with Auburn clearing up some past questions and playing well for four quarters.

A good bit of news from the City is the report that the hydro dam project is again active. The man from France was in town last week, has completed his purchase of Elba Hydro and promised some money to the city by the end of this week. He also predicts he will be in production by March of next year. If it goes through as he explains, this will be a fascinating operation and the latest example of high-tech action.

National Healthcare Restructures

National Healthcare, Inc. (NASDAQ:NHCI) has announced a restructuring program expecting to save approximately $2 million in annual operating expenses.

The restructuring will strengthen National Healthcare's financial operations at the same time making other support areas more efficient," said Stephen L. Phelps, chairman and chief executive officer.

The company said most of the savings involved in the restructuring will be achieved by reorganizing marketing programs to put increased emphasis on physician relations, and through reductions in corporate overhead. It said approximately 60 positions will be eliminated, more than half of them at National Healthcare's corporate office.

Robert M. Thornton Jr. will join NHCI Nov. 1 as senior vice president and chief financial officer.

Charles D. Hall will join NHCI as vice president of reimbursement, effective January 1987 or before.

An internal audit department will be added at National Healthcare, like the new executive positions in finance and reimbursement, these positions already are in the company's budget for fiscal 1987.

A new management position will be created to oversee NHCI's budget process. It is also already in the fiscal 1987 budget. Controllers will be added at the division level for NHCI's two operating divisions of rural hospitals and related health care facilities and services. These new positions had not previously been budgeted for fiscal 1987.

Haunted House Open To Public This Week In Elba

A haunted house has been discovered in the town of Elba, Alabama. It has been found to have housed in it various forms of ectoplasmic activity.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR

Mr. Mularz and Readers,

I am thankful and proud for the privilege I have had to serve our community with the Elba Ministerial Association. In our attempt to try to help defeat a referendum calling for the legalized sale of alcoholic beverages in Elba we decided to take a common sense approach to the matter. We decided to try to inform the registered voters and other members of our community through the printing of documented facts and statistics from studies and reports made by professional people (medical doctors, professional counselors, government officials, etc.). We felt that approach would have a greater impact for the good of our community than if we turned red around the neck, got on a stump, and started slinging mud, calling names, and doing other things which would agitate and polarize people. The primary motivation of the Elba Ministerial Association has not been to defeat the referendum calling for the legalization of the sale of alcoholic beverages in Elba - our primary motivation has been our deep concern for the people of our community. Behind the facts and statistics which reflect the enormous problems associated with the abuse of the drug we call alcohol we see people - men, women, boys and girls whose lives are being wasted and ruined.

We care about that, and we believe the legalized sale of alcoholic beverages in Elba would bring more ruin and hurt into human lives in our community. We believe the additional revenue which might be brought into Elba from the legalized sale of alcohol would be of little significance in comparison to the additional damages the alcohol would do to the people.

The ministers who have participated in the Elba Ministerial Association have acted like Christian gentlemen. They have taken the life, love and concern of Jesus as their model, and it is because of them, the people of the community that the members of the Elba Ministerial Association have expressed their deep concern about one of the important matters in Elba.

Nat. Security Declares Dividend

The Board of Directors of National Security Insurance Company recently declared a regular semi-annual dividend of 32 cents per share. The cash dividend is payable on Dec. 1, 1986, to shareholders of record Nov. 3, 1986.

Unemployment Rate Declines During Month Of September

Alabama's unemployment rate declined from 10.1 percent in August to 9.7 percent in September, but measured above the year-ago rate of 8.1 percent, according to Bill Heatherly, director of the Alabama Dept. of Industrial Relations.

This rate represented 184,900 unemployed in September, compared to 192,500 in August, and 146,800 a year ago.

The return to work of non-teaching school personnel for the fall term and continued declines in the number of summer jobseekers combined with fall harvest activity in the agricultural sector, were significant factors in the September unemployment rate decline.

Wage and salary employment posted a monthly increase of 5,500, and realized a 19,200 over-the-year gain, confined entirely to the non-manufacturing division.

The comparable national rate for September measured 6.8 percent, up from August's level of 6.7 percent, but below the 6.9 percent rate recorded a year ago.

TODAY AT 5 P.M. IS DEADLINE... Coffee County absentee ballot manager Evelyn Hecutt reminds all voters that today (Thursday), Oct. 30 at 5 p.m. is the final date to fill out absentee ballots for next week's election. Mrs. Hecutt worked overtime earlier in the week in an effort to provide absentee ballots to needy voters and had to summon help from the balcony of the courthouse after being locked in. Mrs. Hecutt states she will not work overtime Thursday!

Letter To The Editor

Dear Editor,

Thank you for the coverage you gave concerning the Curtis (School) reunion. I didn't realize so many people read The Elba Clipper.

I received the following letter from a former Curtis school student who now lives in Miami, Fla.:

(Janice C. Hudson)

"Dear Janice,
My family lived in Curtis, across the road from Horace Donaldson's store. Our neighbors were the Campbells, two of whom taught at Curtis - Lucille and Karen. Our other neighbors were the Curtis Donaldsons, Dr. Mixon and family and the Twilleys, directly in front of the school.

All my brothers and sisters attended Curtis. My father, deceased; Nannie Mae Pair Harry, Alexander City; R.B. Pair, Crestview, Fla.; Blondell Pair Moore, Oxford, Ala.; Willie Pair, Montgomery; Bryce Pair, deceased; Doris Pair Moulton, Miami, Fla.; Annie Ruth Pair Cooley, Ocala, Fla.; Jeanette Pair, deceased; Edwin Pair, Ogden, Utah.

I started to school in 1928 and dear Mrs. Grimes gave me a good start. Two of my classmates - I started to school in 1928 and dear Mrs. Grimes gave me a good start. Two of my classmates - Violetta Cowen and Paul Donaldson, and I lived for top honors through the years. After my mother died I dropped out of school for a year to help at home, so I did not graduate from the ninth with my old class. We had moved away from Curtis and continued to attend classes there by riding Grafton Young's bus. For my last year I again lived in Curtis with my brother, R.B., and his wife Vivian Danley, Pair, in our old house.

Mr. R.L. Farris was still principal but Mr. Griffin was one of my teachers. Mrs. Russell was also one of my teachers, but died suddenly that year.

Mrs. Russell was coaching our play, "Aaron Slick From Punkin Creek," when she died. Our new teacher took over her position and very sadly, went ahead with the play.

We only had eight girls and three boys in the ninth grade so I was chosen to play Aaron Slick. With my hair cut short and my brother R.B.'s sales on, I tried to be the best Aaron Slick that I could. The proceeds from our play bought new filing cabinets for the school. (I still have that play.)

My years living at Curtis and going to Curtis School are some of the happiest of my life. My dad's barber shop in our home caused us to have a constant flow of friends and neighbors in our home. So our friends were many and the memories precious.

I'm married to Ray Moulton and he went some to Curtis, but did not graduate there.

I looked up an old autograph book and these are some of the people who wrote in there:

Teachers: Mrs. Crawley, Mrs. Ringsdorf, Mrs. Russell, Mr. Griffin, Miss Harte and Mr. Farris.
Students - Annie Maude Jacobs, Dot Crocker, Jewel Crocker, Alice Johnson, Maris Culey, Gussie Lee Brown, Cupidan Moore, Gladys Dawkins, Beulah Wingard, Gerother Wingard, Frances Taylor, Martha Sue Cooper, Nancy Sula Weaver, Gladys Reeves.

I was president of the ninth-grade class, Dorothy Crocker - secretary, Annie Maude Jacobs - vice president. Class colors were white and green. (Dot Crocker later married Dick Daniels, bus driver.)

A former student from Curtis is a nurse here in one of our local hospitals. She was then Mary Jean Deberry and now is Mary O'Steen. The first time she saw me, about ten years ago, she remembered me from Curtis and walked up to me and asked if I was Doris Pair that went to school at Curtis. I see her occasionally now.

LETTER TO THE EDITOR

Dear Editor,

It is said that every day you make thousands of decisions, some small and some large. On November 4, the citizens of Elba will be called on to make one of the most crucial decisions they have ever made. They will vote on whether or not to legalize the sale of alcoholic beverages in your city. Alcohol makes you a lot of promises, but never delivers those promises. Alcohol, like all drugs, is a big lie. It destroys more lives, families and futures than can be dreamed.

The alcoholic beverage commercials on television, which are the most catchy ones made, give you a picture of laughter and enjoyment of life. They never show you the results of drinking. You never see the child dead in the street because someone under the influence of alcohol ran a stop sign or red light or was driving on the wrong side of the road and could not react in time because their senses were dull. You never see the tangled wreckage of vehicles with dead bodies on the highway.

Last year nearly 30,000 deaths occurred on America's highways that were alcohol related. The alcoholic commercials never show you the vomit or the hangover the day after, or the time lost at work getting over their drinking. You never see the time and money spent to clean up after the results of alcohol. The commercials never show you the increase in crime related to alcohol. You never see a husband or wife so controlled by alcohol that they abuse their spouses and children, but yet they say they can handle what they drink.

Every person who thinks he can handle what he drinks is only lying to himself. He does not control the alcohol - the alcohol controls him.

How many teenage girls have lost their virginity because alcohol broke down their defenses? The commercials and advertisements will never show you that, but these are the results.

The biggest lie of all is the financial problem the sale of alcohol is supposed to cure. The sale of alcohol has never cured one financial problem. Selling alcoholic beverages was supposed to cure many financial problems in the City of Enterprise, but they were one of the first systems in the county wanting a one-cent sales tax for their school system. Dale County (a wet county) wants a one-cent sales tax to cure their financial needs: alcohol sales has not done it and it will not! Cities and school systems cry money, money, money, we need money!

May I remind you the Word of God tells us "the love of money is the root of all evil!" There are many other promises alcohol sales promises, but are only lies, that we do not have time or space to cover. Why not believe the facts? Don't look at just one side of the issue. A man is just as dangerous on the highway if he drinks at home and gets on the road as a man is who goes somewhere else to get it and brings it home.

Alcohol is the number one drug problem in America! It is the only drug that is legalized, though. Cocaine is called the big lie, but the biggest of all lies are the ones made by alcohol. I pray that the citizens of Elba will say NO on November 4 to the biggest drug problem in the world. Elba does not need it!!!

Miss Pittman Becomes Bride Of Mr. King

Miss Sandra-Patti Pittman and Patrick H. King II were united in marriage during a candlelight ceremony Saturday, Sept. 20, at seven o'clock in the First Baptist Church of New Brockton. The Rev. Rex Henderson officiated at the double-ring ceremony.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Douglas R. Pittman of New Brockton. The groom's parents are Mr. and Mrs. Patrick H. King and the late Margaret King of Ft. Smith, Ark.

Burning hurricane lamps entwined with candlelight ribbon graced the entry of the church. Guests were registered in the vestry by Miss Karen Walden, Huntsville, and Mrs. Wendy Walden Averett of Enterprise. Both cousins of the bride. Program attendants were Mrs. Suzi Luchner, Op, and Miss Dana White, Headland, also cousins of the bride.

The double doors were marked with grapevine wreaths tied with candlelight and white ribbons. A massive arrangement of gladioli, chrysanthemums, bridal tea roses and alstroemeria lilies was placed in the baptistry, the central point of the church. Arched candelabra and tree candelabra with burning tapers and tied with candlelight bows were placed on either side to accent the floral arrangement. Arrangements of ferns completed the background setting.

The Rev. David Richburg performed the ceremony. Shannon Elliott and Kim Fuller, organist and vocalist, rendered musical selections including "Nobody Loves Me Like You Do," and "Together."

The bride was given in marriage by her father, She was dressed in a white tea-length gown of point d'esprit over satin. The Sabrina neckline and short sleeves were edged with Rachel's lace. The hemline of the gown was bordered with matching lace, and the waistline was accented with a satin cummerbund that fastened in the back with a candy bow.

For her headpiece she wore a floral wreath of miniature flowers, and tiny pearl pearls, with two tiers of silk illusion gathered to the headpiece. Train streamers accented the dress in the back. The bride's hair was styled in a Kimmy Ann Fuller was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Louise Kay Duncan and Paula Sue Nguyen, junior bridesmaid was Robyn Michele Rhoades.

The attendants were matching tea-length gowns of buckleberry and lace fabric. The scalloped neckline and fitted bodice were made of Schiffl embroidered taffeta, and the short puffed sleeves were edged with Rachel's lace. The skirt was accented with sashes at the waist.

Robert W. Gamper was best man. Ushers were Rex Owens and John Norrie, and junior groomsmen was Thomas R. Gamper.

A reception was held in the fellowship hall of the church, following the ceremony, with Sherrill Sharpless, Eve Sharpless, Beverly McCall, Diane Taylor and Edna Duncan serving.

The couple will be at home in Wetumpka, where the groom is employed, with Red Lobster Restaurant.

Congressman Dickinson Comes To EHS

"We don't fully appreciate it. It's just a piece of cloth. But when you put those stars and bars of red, white and blue on it, it's a meaning different than anything else. It's a symbol of our country," Congressman Bill Dickinson, proudly said these words Tuesday, October 21, as he presented Elba High School with a new American flag. This very flag was flown over the U.S. Capitol on September 13, 1986, by Mr. Dickinson to represent Elba High School. The students and faculty were very intent as they listened to their U.S. Congressman talk of how our "freedom is not free." Our freedom has been bought and paid for by those who have gone ahead of us. Their blood, sacrifices and being captured as prisoners of war have shown us what freedom really is. None of us fully appreciate the freedoms we have. We never stop and think about those that are hungry or homeless. We just go about our everyday lives as though everyone is in the same conditions as we are. People are always fussing about today's high prices, but did you ever stop to think that people in other countries pay an even higher price for "limited amounts." Congressman Dickinson had some very interesting points to say and the students and faculty very much appreciated it. The flag was presented to Girl Scout members Lori Clark, Whitney Wise, and Susan Farmer. Our thanks go to Mr. King and the Student Council and the Elba Jaycees for asking Mr. Dickinson to come and present us with the flag.

THE PROBLEMS AND NEEDS OF COFFEE COUNTY

(But more importantly, he knows its promise!)

THE BAXLEY PLAN FOR HELPING... COFFEE COUNTY

INDUSTRIAL GROWTH AND JOBS - Bill Baxley's economic blueprint for the future centers around creating new jobs and expanding existing industry. Bill Baxley has the background and experience to represent Alabama in the board rooms of major industries and corporations and come away with growth for Alabama. As governor, Baxley will provide the type of support and leadership to not only keep existing industry on its feet, but to help it expand and "grow new jobs."

RURAL WATER SYSTEM - Bill Baxley will start and complete a rural water system that will guarantee the citizens of Coffee County and all Alabamians a reliable source of water for their homes, water for the needs of the farmer, and water for volunteer fire departments to carry out their essential duties.

SENIOR CITIZENS - Bill Baxley will insure that our senior citizens have the safe, secure future they deserve. Through programs like Utility Rate Assistance and The Baxley Health Care Plan this type of future will become a reality for our senior citizens.

WAR ON DRUGS - Bill Baxley, as governor, will put into effect immediately a program aimed at educating our teenagers to the dangers of drug abuse and putting the drug pushers in jail. The key to this program's success is providing our officers with the proper tools and flexibility.

TORT REFORM - Bill Baxley knows the people of Coffee County care about meaningful tort reform. As governor, Baxley will work for and obtain lower liability insurance rates; this will help to improve the business climate and raise the overall quality of life for the people of Coffee County.

JAM'N WITH THE BEST

by: Lavonia Johnson

If you've seen Zion Chapel's drum majors and colorguard members over the past seven years, you know what we mean when we say "Jam'n with the Best!" In the past years Zion Chapel's drum majors and colorguard members have been able to make superior ratings at various contests. From 1980-1986 the drum majors and colorguard members have performed at contests such as: Phenix Invitational, Southern Invitational, Little Big Horn (six times), Southland Band Classic (twice), Daleville, Alabama's Governor's Festival and Southeastern State Marching Band Festival. Overall Zion Chapel's drum majors and colorguard members have performed in 14 contests and received superior ratings in all of them.

CURRICULUM SPOTLIGHT

FAMILY LIVING

by: Diane Parker

Family Living is one of the many courses offered at Zion Chapel this year. For the last several years Family Living has been offered only as a nine-week course, but this year it was felt that a class should be offered that afforded concentration on this aspect of Home Economics for the benefit of the students. Mrs. Marsha Oggs, Home Economics teacher, defined Family Living as a Home Economics course designed to help students learn about what to expect in "adult world" and how not only to cope with these changes but how to excel or succeed at whatever level they choose. Family Living is the study of many areas including: vocational planning, human development, parenthood education, clothing, etc. The students will not only study what these areas mean, but what their individual roles will require of them in our society now and as adults. Mrs. Oggs believes the course will help students in their decision-making, because responsibilities and goals are stressed as well as how to assume responsibility and set realistic goals. She says decision-making is very important because the class discusses the possibilities of successful decisions and also how to adjust to, evaluate and learn from failures.

BAND

by: Brenda Mobley

The Zion Chapel Chorus is made up of 19 talented voices. Mr. David Scanlon, band director, is also the director of the chorus. The chorus rehearses on interval definitions, voice quality, harmony and solo singing. One of the highlights for this year was singing the Alma Mater during the pre-game activities at Homecoming. The chorus will also sing at the Christmas and Spring concerts. The Christmas program will include "Let it Snow," "Christmas Light," and "Angels We Have Heard on High." The Spring program will include such hits as "Dixie," "We," and "St. Elmo's Fire." The chorus is divided into four sections. The bass section includes Lee Kelley and Tracey Sheets. Mark Bell, Don Rhoden and Mike Senn make up the baritone section. Alto singers are Ome Lee Bundy, Cheryl Fuller, Michelle Hinoite, Pat Huckabaa, Rena Newsham, Teresa Owens, Lee Simmons and Tracey Smith. Sopranos are Chris Boutwell, Melissa Jones, Gail Richards, Melissa Stephens, Fran Wallace and Dana Wambles.

COFFEE COUNTY MEMBERS ATTEND UNISERV MEETING

by: Camille Marler

The Uniserv 25 Advisory Council met on October 20, 1986. Dr. Paul Hubbert, executive secretary of the Alabama Education Association, was guest speaker. He discussed political action and what to expect from the economy in Alabama for the next ten years. Dr. Hubbert also answered questions about the three gubernatorial candidates and what education could expect from each. The council is made up of eight local associations from Dale, Coffee and Geneva counties. All schools from these counties are included. Attending the meeting from the Coffee County schools were Onita Archie from Kinross High School, Ella Burrows, New Brockton Elementary, Barbara Cole, New Brockton High School, and Marsha Oggs, Rachel Bryan and Gale Jackson from Zion Chapel High School.

FCA MEETS

by: Pete Bryan

Recently the Fellowship of Christian Athletes (FCA) held a meeting at the home of Connie Flowers. President Brian McLeod presided over the meeting and turned it over to FCA sponsor Tom Moates. Mr. Moates spoke to the members about God and the priorities in people's lives. When he was through members Shelia Rugg and Astrid Blaschka shared devotionals with the group. Connie Flowers introduced the speaker for the night, Rev. Rodney Crutchfield, who spoke about peer pressure among teenagers as well as adults. After the message the group was served corn dogs and soft drinks. Members present were Bryan Amstrong, Astrid Blaschka, Thomas Boswell, Connie Flowers, Brian McLeod, Diane Parker, Shelia Rugg and LeAnne Simmons.

STUDENT AIDES

by: Astrid Blaschka

This year teachers have student aides. In the past, students were only allowed to help in the office and library. Instead of going to a study hall, the students were allowed to assist teachers with work in the classroom. Most teachers that have a student aide say they appreciate them. They help with some of the chores that go along with teaching. Things like cleaning rooms, filing papers and running errands.

TSU REPRESENTATIVE VISITS SENIORS

by: Astrid Blaschka

On Tuesday, Oct. 21, Mr. Buddy Starlin, a Troy State University representative, came to talk with the seniors about college. He discussed the requirements for admittance, financial aid and scholarships. He also discussed a few of the fun things about college life.

First of all, you must have made a 16 on the entrance exam. American College Testing (ACT) and have a "C" average. Then he mentioned a few of the types of scholarships. There are leadership scholarships, such as Student Council president and senior class president. To qualify for academic scholarships you must have made a 25 on the ACT and have a 3.5 grade-point average. To get full tuition and full room and board, you must have made a 29 on the ACT and have a 3.7 grade point average. He stressed that it is not too early to apply for scholarships or financial aid. Mr. Starlin invited the seniors to come to Senior Night at GSU. The evening began at 4 p.m. on Saturday. Seniors were also invited to attend the TSU ball game afterward.

MORE HALLOWEEN HAPPENINGS

by: Lisa Dyess

Following the Zion Chapel - New Brockton football game Friday night, Oct. 31, everyone is welcome to celebrate Halloween with the ZC Marching Band and ZC varsity cheerleaders. The two organizations will be hosting a Sock Hop starting at 10 p.m. and ending at 12 midnight. Tickets will be sold at the door and will be $2 admission. Proceeds will be divided between the cheerleaders and the marching band. Everyone is invited.

ZC STUDENTS IN GREASED PIG CONTEST

by: Shelia Rugg

"Which way did he go?" "Which way did he go?" This could have been a question asked by Jason McLeod, Chris Jowberry and Michael Stewart, as they participated in the greased pig chase at the National Peanut Festival. Jason, Chris and Michael, all 8th-graders at Zion Chapel, participated in the chase and said it was an amusing event. The object of the contest was to catch a pig and drag it across the finish line. Each pig weighed 50 to 60 pounds and was covered with peanut oil. This made the task of catching a pig extremely difficult. However, if the contestant was successful, he was awarded the pig he caught. Ten pigs were released, with 23 people attempting to make a catch. Michael represented the Future Farmers of America, and Jason and Chris represented the ZC 4-H Club. Chris and Jason were winners in the contest. Jason returned to Dothan the next day to appear on the Betty Baggett Show.

ZC FADS AND FASHIONS

by: Sharon Pope

"Look, there goes another Coca Cola shirt." "What about those Coke jeans?" "Did you see those high-top Reeboks?" These are just a few phrases heard up and down the halls of ZC. School has only been in session for about two months, and already, as usual, there has been a fashion trend started, involving fads and fashions from head to toe.

To begin with, girls' hair consists of the curly, moussed look, but most recently is the banana clip in many different styles and colors. For the boys, it is the spiked hair. Moving on down to the neck, there are the typical gold chains and newly added bracelets. Gold bracelets can be found on the wrists, and design rings on the forefinger. Then for the torso, there are oversized sweaters, gold color shirts, Coca-Cola shirts, band T-shirts, ZC logo shirts, and much, much more. As for other clothing - there is anything from a straight, denim mini-skirt to the traditional Levi's for the boys. Fads in include include striped pants, Coca-Cola jeans, ankle-length skirts, khaki pants, denim jackets, design and flowered jeans. Last stop for these trends is the feet. High- and low-top Reeboks, Autry, Converse, Asahi and Nike tennis shoes, as well as bright-colored flats, and ever-popular wrestling boots are present. Whatever the style, whether it be lasting only a week or month, or as long as a year, it can usually be found at ZC!

Band Superior In Little Big Horn Contest

by: Brian McLeod

The Zion Chapel Marching Band recently competed in the Little Big Horn Marching Contest in Opp and received superior ratings.

Drum major, colorguard, drumline and band all were judged individually, and then the scores were combined for an overall score. The Rebel Band received superior rating in each category.

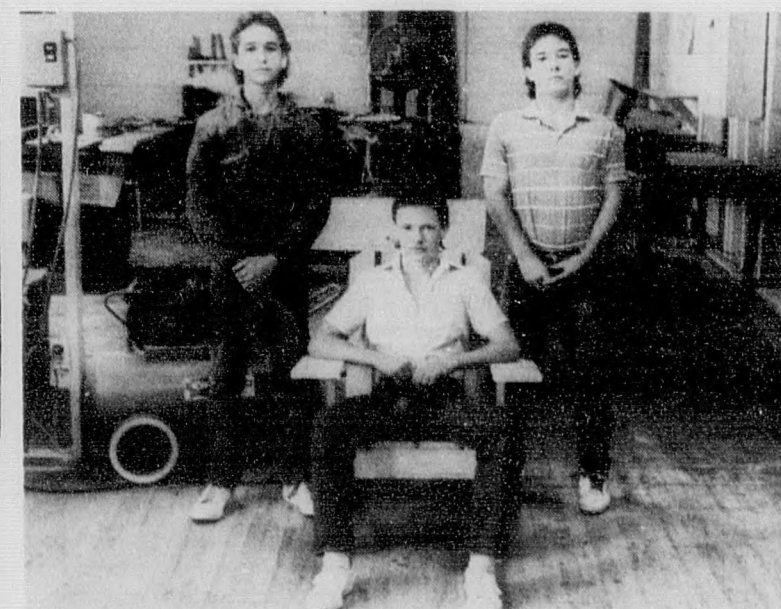

The band also received the Best in Class award. They were chosen the best band in Class A, which had a total of 11 bands in the class.

The Bronze Award also went to the Rebel Band. The band was chosen No. 1 in the bronze division which consisted of 16 bands.

The band received trophies for each category and a plaque for being Bronze division champion.

The Rebel Marching Band will compete in the Southeastern State Marching Band Festival on Saturday, Nov. 1, in Troy.

Agribusiness Students Build Lawn Chairs

by: Cheryl Faison

Instead of waiting for the next sale on lawn chairs, some vocational agribusiness students began to plan, assemble and build their own lawn chairs.

The project of building lawn chairs began October 13 in the vocational agribusiness department at ZC.

After studying, drawing plans and preparing materials the second-year agribusiness students went into the shop to start measuring, sawing and nailing what was to be lawn chairs.

There were several pieces listed on the students' bill of materials. They needed 2 arm pieces, 2 side rails, 2 front posts, 4 back pieces and 4 seat pieces to be cut and measured before they could assemble the chair. After the chair was put together it was to be painted and taken home by the student it belonged to.

There were three students in each group and it took them between three and four days to complete one single- or double-seat chair.

Mr. Harold Stewart, agribusiness instructor, said the purpose of the project was for students to learn to make and follow plans and safely use equipment.

Senior Citizens Have Weekly Meeting

Members of the Senior Citizens of Cordelia Street met, October 23, for their weekly meeting at the HRDC Building on Simmons Street in Elba.

Sincerely,

Robert C. Morgan

Robert C. Morgan
Resident Bishop
United Methodist Church
Jackson, Mississippi

Bill, Martha joins me in extending our love to you, Lucy and Louis. We will continue to hold you up in our prayers.

I do not know what the weeks ahead hold for you and your future. The people of Alabama must make that decision. However, I want you to know of how much I appreciate you as a person; do not let the actions of others, who would seek to undo you, cause you to do or act in any way less than the Christian I know you to be.

Your Christian character has been demonstrated for me in your genuine concern for justice among the poor and the disenfranchised. I wish that there was some way that people could know of your genuine compassion. While many politicians parade their church activities in public, you have refused to capitalize on what I know for you is a serious and private relation to God. Knowing of your personal commitment to Christ and His Church as I do is one of the reasons why I am so astonished that anyone could portray you as anything less than the Christian I know you to be.

I remember the day you came by my office to talk about doing something special for retired United Methodist ministers in Alabama. I was so thrilled when you, at your own initiative, were willing to take out the substantial life insurance policy, making the retired United Methodist pastors the beneficiary. That was an expression of Christian stewardship that I cannot soon forget, and like always, you didn't want anybody to know about it. I can recall the many times when you went the second mile with special gifts for needy causes. These gifts were always in addition to your tithe.

Dear Bill:

The following letter was written by Reverend Morgan in response to a request for words of encouragement by Bill Baxley's fellow churchmen.

Yellow River Watershed Association Holds Meeting

BY Steve Musser, District Conservationist

The N.E. Yellow River Watershed Association held a special meeting on September 26 in the conference room at the Agricultural Service Center, in Andalusia, to discuss the progress and to amend the by-laws to include four new voting members from both Coffee and Crenshaw Counties into the Association.

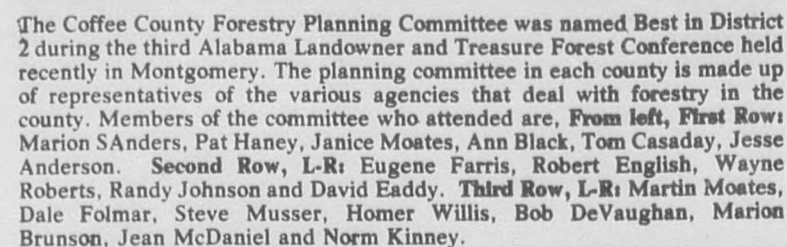

The N.E. Yellow River Watershed Association is now in the planning stage with hopes of funding in the future. The proposed watershed is to include Pond Creek, Lightwood Knot Creek, Poley Creek, and Yellow River, North of Highway 84. The proposed N.E. Yellow River Watershed encompasses 98,822 acres in Coffee, Covington and Crenshaw Counties and is a joint effort of Coffee, Covington, and Crenshaw County Soil and Water Conservation Districts; the Soil Conservation Service; Coffee, Covington, and Crenshaw County Commissions; and U.S. Forestry Service. The acreage breakdown in the Watershed consists of 80,425 acres in Covington, 11,992 acres in Crenshaw and 6,405 acres in Coffee County.

The purpose of the watershed is to reduce flooding, conserve water for agricultural, recreational and municipal use, reduce erosion and sedimentation, improve water quality in Frank Jackson Lake and provide habitat for fish and wildlife.

Current watershed activities were presented by Charlie Harper, SCS Area Conservationist. Mr. Harper gave an overview of Public Law 566 which deals with watershed protection and flood prevention and the specifics concerning the N.E. Yellow River Watershed.

Letters will be mailed to each landowner in the watershed to explain the details and possible funding available to install needed conservation practices on their farms. If there are any questions concerning the proposed N.E. Yellow River Watershed, please contact the Soil Conservation Service in your county. In Coffee, please call 894-6332 or come by the office at the Coffee County Agricultural Center in New Brockton.

The Coffee County Forestry Planning Committee was named Best in District 2 during the third Alabama Landowner and Treasure Forest Conference held recently in Montgomery. The planning committee in each county is made up of representatives of the various agencies that deal with forestry in the county. Members of the committee who attended are, from left, First Row: Marion Sanders, Pat Haney, Janice Moates, Ann Black, Tom Casaday, Jesse Anderson. Second Row, L-R: Eugene Farris, Robert English, Wayne Roberts, Randy Johnson and David Eddy. Third Row, L-R: Martin Moates, Dale Folmar, Steve Musser, Homer Willis, Bob DeVaughan, Marion Brunson, Jean McDaniel and Norm Kinney.

FAMILY TALK

BY Glenda M. Frazier
Community Resource Specialist

Before too many more weeks have gone by, we will be thinking about gifts for Christmas. We think it is taking time to give that special gift at this special time of year. The greatest gift parents can give to their children is love. There are so many ways to show love to your children. Love is tender, thoughtful, unforced, protecting and joyous. Love is taking time to listen when your child needs a friend. Love is a hug, a kiss on the back or a arm smile. Love is a batch of their favorite cookies or a fishing trip. Love is praise, a kind word, a quiet time together. It does not require lots of money to give the gift of love.

Children learn the meaning of love by seeing and hearing expressions of love and affection between their parents. Warmth is created and sustained when love is demonstrated. Children come to see their parents' love most clearly in the things they say and do. It is telling your children you love them as well as showing them in little ways through the hugs, kisses, pats, smiles and encouraging words. Love guards, molds, and protects children. It is telling them it's okay to say no to peer pressure. Children need to know they are loved. They ask for love and attention in many different ways. Sometimes when parents are too busy to give love and attention, children will force them to give attention. This forced attention may be gotten when the child has gotten into trouble because this is the only way they are able to get their parents' attention. This is certainly not the best way but for some children, it seems the only way. Sometimes children misbehave only to get attention. It sure gets attention, but not the kind that demonstrates patient love. Showing love with a little attention can bring great rewards.

Parents show their love through words and actions. Take a few moments to ask yourself as a parent if you are talking and acting as you should.

Thoughts: The best way to make children is to make them happy. - Oscar Wilde

BEAUTIFUL TREES

As you make plans to buy your Christmas tree, consider the excellent quality Christmas trees which are grown in Coffee County. Several people are producing Christmas trees for market. James and Nelda Price on the Orange Highway are making excellent progress in producing high quality trees. They have been in the business for a couple of years. Jack Wise, who lives 5 miles south of Elba on Highway 87 had been growing high quality trees for several years. He should have a good selection this year also. Ralph Sharpless, who lives 3 or 4 miles out of Elba, just off Highway 54, is another excellent grower who has been producing about 6 years. Ralph takes a lot of pride in growing beautiful trees. There are other growers, but these growers are well established. I do not have anything against artificial trees, but at Christmas time, we always use a real tree at our home.

information on varieties and recommended production practices.

FARM CITY WEEK

The Coffee County Farm City Week committee is rapidly developing plans for Farm City Week observance in Coffee County. The week, which is observed around Thanksgiving each year, is designated nationally to foster better relations between farm and rural people.

Coffee County people both in the town and rural areas, have always gotten along extremely well. However, there is something special about both groups setting aside a portion of their time to have a better understanding. Bill Faulk is the overall chairman of Farm City Week again this year. There are a lot of excellent activities being planned. It is bound to bring us close together and make us realize how dependent we are on each other.

CALF AND PIG SCRAMBLE

Three Coffee County 4-H club members won the Pig and Calf Scramble at the Peanut Festival Thursday night. Chris Dewberry, FFA member at Zion Chapel, was also a lucky winner. We weren't lucky enough to win one of the fine heifer calves that were turned loose. The Calf and Pig Scramble both provide excellent entertainment. I estimate there were about 4,000 people watching it. One thing is for sure, our young people in the Wiregrass are tough. When they make up their mind, there is no stopping them. Congratulations to Chris Dewberry, Jack Childs, Jimmy Rutledge and Jason McLeod for catching and holding on to those beautiful pigs. Mike Stewart, Zion Chapel FFA, was also a participant.

ROUND AND ABOUT WITH ERLA

By Eria Belcher

***Even so the tongue is a little member, and boasteth great things; behold how great a matter a little fire kindleth. And the tongue is a fire, a world of iniquity: so is the tongue among our members, that it defileth the whole body, and setteth on fire the course of nature; and it is set on fire of hell. For every kind of beasts, and of birds, and of serpents, and of things in the sea, is tamed, and hath been tamed of mankind; but the tongue can no man tame; it is an unruly evil, full of deadly poison. Thewith bless we God, even the Father, and therewith curse we men, which are made after the similitude of God. Out of the same mouth proceedeth blessing and cursing. My brethren, these things ought not so to be.

Time To Bring The Washpan From The Shelf

BY: Faye Brown

I like the lazy days between the heat of summer and the cold of winter. When all there is to do is make the change is twist my thermostat from "cool" to "heat" I think of other hectic years. I see the endless chores of childhood's "bringing-in" and "shorting-up" that got us ready for the season. Of course the cotton, corn and garden crops were brought in early from the fields. But smaller, more subtle things were destined for a change as well. The least of these was not the bringing of the bucket and washpan from the shelf. The time for this was told by Dad when morning's early splashing at the back porch's edge brought briskness too intense. Daddy never cared for the rinsing of just hands. On summer days he'd roll his sleeves and lather past the brows and cover all his face with frosting white. Then dipping deep for several times with large cupped hands he'd carry half the contents of the pan to splash upon his dusty face and weary arms. And then he'd splash again upon his hair. And taking comb from off the warped board fastened on the porch's rail, he'd stand before the broken piece of "looking glass" nailed to the wall and sleek his handsome black hair back before he entered for a single meal. It was as much a part as was The Grace he prayed always before he ate. But winter's coming changed the way in which my Dad washed up; he'd do it gently then, at the stand inside the warmth of kitchen for a spell. And so at last the hound dogs chased the hens around the corners without fear of having Dad sling out his water from the pan always as they drew near.

When signs of frost first hit the air we lined the long enclosed hallway with Mama's flowers from the front porch shelf. They were an odd lot there: those which survived the year before and clippings from the neighbors near and far—and all in syrup buckets, chamber pots and chipped earthen pitchers that had at one time sprang a leak. When their leaves were falling on the floor we asked them up and carried them once more. On their last move we took them down to share the darkness of the cellar with the spiders and the toads. There they were always alone until the springtime thunder roused our Dad to take us underneath the ground at intervals as well.

The late onions and the peppers red were gathered in and tied about

Halloween Safety Tips

The U.S. Consumer Safety Product Commission, The Southeast Child Safety Institute, and The Children's Hospital of Alabama have some Halloween safety tips for parents and guardians of children who plan to go trick-or-treating this Halloween:

• Warn children not to eat any of their treats before they get home. Examine all treats carefully for evidence of tampering before allowing children to eat them.

• Look for costumes, masks, beards and wigs labeled "Flame Resistant." Although this does not mean these items won't catch fire, such labeling indicates that they will resist burning and should extinguish quickly once removed from the ignition source. Flammable materials and outfits with long, baggy sleeves or billowing skirts should be avoided to minimize the risk of contact with candles or other sources of ignition.

• Make or buy costumes light and bright enough to be easily visible to motorists. For greater visibility in dusk or darkness, costumes can be decorated or trimmed with reflective tape which will glow in the beam of a car's headlights. Bags or sacks should also be light colored or decorated with reflective tape. Reflective tape is usually available in hardware, bicycle, and sporting goods stores. Children should also carry flashlights to see—and be seen—more easily.

• Costumes should be short enough to prevent children from tripping and falling. Children should wear well-fitting, sturdy shoes. Mother's high heels are not a good idea for safe walking.

• Hats and scarves should be tied securely to prevent them from slipping over children's eyes.

• Apply a natural mask of cosmetics rather than have a child wear a loose fitting mask which might restrict breathing or obscure vision. If a mask is used, however, make sure it fits securely and has eyeholes large enough to allow full vision.

• Swords, knives, and similar costume accessories should be of soft or flexible material.

• Smaller children should always be accompanied by an older responsible child or an adult. All children should use the sidewalk rather than walk in the street, and they should WALK not run from house to house. Children should be cautioned against running out from between parked cars, or across lawns, yards where ornaments, furniture, or clotheslines present dangers.

• Children should only go to homes where residents have outside lights on as a sign of welcome. Children should not enter homes or apartments unless they are accompanied by an adult.

• Those receiving trick-or-treaters should remove anything that could be an obstacle from steps, lawns, and porches. Cardstock jack-o'-lanterns should be kept away from curtains, decorations, or other furnishings that could be ignited.

For further information on product safety, consumers may call the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission's toll-free hotline on 800-638-CPSC. A telephone number for the hearing impaired is 800-638-8270 (Mayland only, 800-492-8104).

For poison information, call The Children's Hospital of Alabama Poison Information Center 923-4050 (Birmingham) or (800) 292-6678 (toll-free, statewide).

The CHILDREN'S HOSPITAL of ALABAMA is a leading center for pediatric care and research. It is located at 1900 7th Avenue South, Birmingham, AL 35294.

Urgent Safety Alert Issued On Gas Heaters

Honeywell has initiated a second major LP-gas safety alert on a combination gas valve manufactured between 1966 and 1972. The company estimates that 220,000 of these valves were installed on LP-gas heating systems during that time period. The valves must be located and replaced to ensure the safety of individuals using LP-gas heating systems, including central furnaces, boilers, pool heaters, conversion burners, floor furnaces, gas-fired logs and recreational vehicle heaters.

An explosion or fire could result if the control should fail. In such an instance, the valve does not shut off the gas supply when the pilot light is out. Since LP-gas is heavier than air, it may temporarily exist at floor level. If the combustible gas is exposed to an ignition source, such as electric sparks or matches, a fire or explosion may occur, causing property damage and personal injury.

All LP-gas users should check their furnace or heating appliance and identify the model number on their combination gas control valve. Model numbers being recalled are the CS133, CS134, CS5133, CS5134, V4136, V4146, V5149, V7294, V8136, V8139, V8146, V8169, V8188, V8183, V8138 and V81893.

If the gas control has one of these numbers, the user should immediately call Honeywell toll free at 1-800-328-8194.

The recalled controls will be replaced with newer models at Honeywell's expense. Honeywell will contact a service contractor and make arrangements to replace the valves.

Honeywell supports the "Gas Check Program," a safety-inspection program offered by many LP-gas dealers and urges users to contact their suppliers for more information about the program.

Views From The Pressbox By Ricky Mularz

The Elba Tigers are only one game away from the playoffs and it's time for all the Elba fans to come out and give the support it deserves. I'll let the rain be the excuse for last week's empty seats; however, this week the Area crown is on the line and there won't be any excuses for Elba fans not to be at the game. C'mon folks, last season you were unreal with your support and I want to see it again!!!

TIGERS MAKE IT FOUR IN A ROW WITH WIN OVER ANDALUSIA

The Elba Tigers battled their old nemesis, the Andalusia Bulldogs, last week and upset the 5A Bulldogs 14-0 in a most impressive showing. The Elba offense just lined up and ran right at the Bulldog defense, and the defense made big play after big play to keep the 'Dogs off the board. It was a real team victory!

The Elba offense obviously had a game plan to run right at the Andalusia defense, and the combination of hard running and excellent blocking made the plan a successful one. The line controlled the line of scrimmage almost throughout the game and the running backs ran hard and battled for every yard. The offense kept the ball for almost 17 minutes in the second half for only 7 minutes for Andalusia, and the ball control attack worked just like the coaches had hoped. Last week the offense took control in the trenches and in doing so took control of the game. It sure looked good to me!

The Elba defense had to make a few adjustments last week due to sickness, but the players forced into action did a good job and the defense recorded its third shutout of the season and its second in the last three games. The defense took its lumps during the losing skid; however, it now seems to have found itself and has played like champs for four weeks in a row. Elba's defense has worked extra hard in practice the last couple of weeks and some changes were made at a couple of spots, and right now the defense looks outstanding. The pressure is always on the defense and I think the Tigers are in good hands!

Elba looked as good as ever in last week's win over Andalusia, making me more confident than ever, and now that the players know they can win I look for even bigger things this week. Gooooo Tigers!!!!

KINSTON IN COUNTY GRID SPOTLIGHT, FINALLY

The Kinston Bulldogs finally made it into the county football spotlight last week as they beat Arton to claim their first win of the season. You don't get much glory when you're losing, and don't want any, but when you win the spotlight shines brightly and this week it's shining on the 'Dogs. Here's a quick look around the county...

Kinston rallied to edge Arton 13-12 for its first win of the season and the Bulldogs are to be commended for hanging in after eight straight losses and pulling out a win. The Bulldogs were disappointed about the season and could have quit, but they didn't and that shows a lot of pride.

New Brockton kept on winning and wrapped up the Area title with a 48-14 romp over Area runner-up Highland Home. The Gamecocks have looked invincible in recent weeks and have to be a team to watch now that the playoffs are just around the corner. The Gamecocks were supposed to be a year away from being a power; however, someone forgot to tell the Gamecocks because they are without a doubt a 2A football power!

Zion Chapel suffered a 20-0 loss to Goshen to end any Rebel hopes of a playoff spot, and although the loss left the Rebs with only one game to play, you have to give Zion Chapel a lot of credit for bouncing back after a slow start to post a couple of wins and salvage a creditable season. Don't feel sorry for the Rebels... they gave it their all and have brighter days ahead.

LOOKING BACK AT QUITE A YEAR ACROSS THE STATE

I know the regular season doesn't end until Friday night, but the playoffs are a hectic time around a newspaper office and I thought I'd better go ahead and single out a few teams for outstanding seasons. Here are the teams that I'll remember in '86:

CLASS 1A: The Dozier Tigers don't have the quantity of most teams, but the kids out there have a lot of talent and have won most of the season ranked #1 in the polls. No matter what the Tigers do in the playoffs, it's been a fantastic year for the smallest football-playing school in the state.

CLASS 2A: The Flomaton Hurricanes have struggled to a number of disappointing seasons in recent years and two years ago Kinston Coach Ronnie Cottrell called the school to inquire about the coaching vacancy for another coach. Well, Flomaton offered Cottrell the job and the rest is history, as the Hurricanes have tumbled around in this season before breaking a 9-0 record heading into the final week of the season. The success of Cottrell and the Hurricanes is a real storybook.

CLASS 3A: South Lamar opened for the first time this season with students from Kennedy and Millport combining, and the combination must have been just the right formula as the Stallions have rolled up an 8-1 record and a spot in the playoffs. Millport won a state title a couple of years ago against Brantley in 1A, and now the boys are at a new school and still winning with more than a little help. Not a bad way to start!

CLASS 4A: Ashford had slipped into a series of losing seasons after many glory years, but the Yellowjackets got a new coach with a new enthusiasm. It goes to show that it takes more than good kids to win!

CLASS 5A: Homewood had long been a big school contender in Birmingham and didn't really want to move down a class, but after rolling to 8 exciting wins you have to believe the Patriots are feeling right at home. The Pats have defeated three 6A squads and outscored their opponents 181-65, so what's so bad about moving??

CLASS 6A: The Robert E. Lee Generals began the road back to big school dominance last season and this season have carried the banner for the state of Alabama in moving into the top 10 in the nation! The Generals were down a couple of years, but brought in a new coach and now all of a sudden the program is second to none. "All things that go around come around."

YE OLD POLISH PROGNOSTICATOR REACHES THE FINAL WEEK SMILING

Ye old Polish Prognosticator had another good week last week and is finally beginning to get the hang of this year's pickings. The season is drawing to a close for some teams, but for others the real season is just beginning. I'll keep on picking as long as two teams want to go at it and maybe even get better (I hope). Here goes...

ELBA VS. DALEVILLE

This series has been hotly contested in recent years and both teams will be sky-high for the area championship clash. The Warhaws have their best team in years and are a legitimate contender; however, the Tigers are playing their best ball of the season and should be hungry to get the area title in front of the home folks. It'll be a good 'un!

NEW BROCKTON VS. ZION CHAPEL

You can usually throw the record book out the window when these two get together, but this year has been the year of the Gamecock while the Rebels have been struggling. The Rebels will just have to hold on tight and hope to keep it close!

Tigers To Battle Daleville For Area 4 Title

The Class 3A, Area 4 football championship and the home field advantage in the playoffs will be on the line Friday night when the Daleville Warhaws invade Elba's Miller Memorial Stadium for a battle with the hard-charging Elba Tigers.

Daleville will bring a 6-3 record into the clash, while Elba will bring a 5-4 record into the battle, including a 4-game winning streak.

Daleville has got a very good football team. Elba's Coach Mack Wood, "and has as much speed as anyone in the state in any class!" They use their speed well, have a very good offensive line and are sound in all areas of play. Don't let anybody tell you different - Daleville has got a very good football team in every aspect of the game."

"On offense," stated Wood, "Daleville runs out of both the wishbone and the veer and likes to head for the corners. They like to run the belly option, the dive and the sweep and do an extremely good job running all three. They also have a solid passing attack with a very good quarterback, so as we know from watching the film, Daleville has a well-rounded attack with excellent speed on the corners."

"Over on defense, Daleville has very big linemen and aggressive linebackers. Their defense pursues the ball well and will flat hit you every chance they get. Daleville has a well-coached team that can break a game open at any time and we know we're in for all we can handle."

"For us to win," stated Wood, "we'll have to play as good as we can and be ready for anything at all times. Our offense will have to continue to do a good job blocking and will have to pick up their blitzes. We'll have to throw the ball more than we have in recent weeks and have no turnovers."

"On defense we'll have to contain their outside speed first, play sound in the middle and be ready for the pass. The Daleville offense does a lot of things well, and we'll have to be prepared. It's going to be a tough game and we all know what it will

BRANTLEY VS. KINSTON

Brantley has had all kinds of troubles winning this season, but haven't really played that bad and could be a real darkhorse in the playoffs. The Kinston Bulldogs have won only once, but could make the playoffs with a win and will give the highly favored Brantley team all they've got.

had worked hard at holding onto the ball, and the backs did a good job. I wasn't pleased with our passing attack, but the running game more than picked up the slack and looked real good. Our offensive line blocked well, the backs ran hard and it was a total effort.

"On defense we played the most consistent game we've played all season and the gang tackled throughout the game. We did catch out of position a couple of times; however, we made up for it with effort and hit hard. It was a very big win for us and hopefully we're finally headed in the right direction."

The Elba Junior High Tigers pulled out to a whopping 38-0 halftime lead and then let the reserves in on the fun as the Tigers ended the season with an easy 44-8 win over the outmanned Samson Tigers, last Thursday night in Samson.

The win gave the Tigers a final record of 6-1, while Samson slipped to 1-5 with the loss.

Elba received the opening kick and wasted no time getting on the scoreboard, as on the first play from scrimmage Reggie Horstead broke through a gaping hole and rambled 57 yards for a touchdown! Kevin Matthews passed to Joe Brooks for the 16-yard touchdown and the reserves got in the act, and the Tiger reserves showed some life of their own as they marched 35 yards in a 13-play drive to put another touchdown on the board.

Bernard Ware gained all the yardage during the short march and scored the touchdown on an 18-yard scamper. The two-point try failed, but with 1:47 left in the third quarter the Tigers owned a whopping 44-0 advantage!

Samson's offense took advantage of the Elba reserves to march 64

Time To Bring The Washpan From The Shelf

BY: Faye Brown

I like the lazy days between the heat of summer and the cold of winter. When that I must do to make the change is twist my thermostat from "cool" to "heat." I think of other hectic years. I see the endless chores of childhood: "bringing-in" and "shoring-up" that got us ready for the season fire.

Of course the cotton, corn and garden crops were brought in early from the fields. But smaller, more subtle things were destined for a change as well. The least of these was not the bringing of the bucket and washpan from the shelf. The time for this was told by Dad: when morning's early splashing at the back porch's edge brought briskness to intense. Daddy never cared for timid rinsing of just hands. On summer days he'd roll his sleeves and rather past the bows and cover all his face with frosting white. Then dipping deep for several times with large cupped hands he'd carry half the contents of the pail splash upon his dusty face and weary arms. And then he'd splash again upon his hair. And taking comb from off the warped board fastened on the porch's rail, he'd stand before the broken piece of looking glass' nailed to the wall and sleek his handsome black hair back before he entered for a single meal. It was as much a part as was the Grace he prayed always before he ate. But winter's coming changed the way in which my Dad washed up; he'd do it gently then, at the stand inside the warmth of kitchen soap. And so at last the hound dogs chased the hens around the corners without fear of having Dad sling out his water from the pan always as they drew near.

When signs of frost first hit the air we lined the long enclosed hallway with Mama's flowers. The front porch shelf. They were an odd lot there: those which survived the year before and clippings from the neighbors near and far—and all in syrup buckets, chamber pots and chipped earthen pitchers that had at one time sprang a leak. When their leaves were falling on the floor we picked them up and carried them once more. On their last move we took them to share the darkness of the cellar with the spiders and the toads. There they were always alone until the springtime thunder roused our Dad to take us underneath the ground at intervals as well.

The late onions and the peppers red were gathered in and tied about with colored strings. These brightened Mama's kitchen from nails high upon the smoked-stained walls. The sweet potatoes were snuggled down more carefully than baby for his daily nap. First there was the heating of the soil into a mound. Soft hay or grasses made the bed and coverlet where the red roosters took the rest they had to have to sweeten up their juices for our supper meals. Next, corn stalks covered over with more dirt formed a tepee with a tiny hole to let in air but ward off rain and any snow that fell. It was my daily task to take some "taters" from the side, then close with great precision and much care the hole I'd made within the shell.

in winter months was also used to preen a bundle for a broom, to get the extra lush and fuzzy foliage from the stems.

The missing window panes that in summer only let in welcomed air were then cut out of wood or pastboard from a box and fitted tight to hedge against the freezing blasts. When the last of these had been closed in and quilts piled up six to every bed, we knew that we were braced for winter's blow. When wood was stacked behind the kitchen stove and near the fireplace and on the porch, both when splinters of heart pine lay within the kindlin' box and the washpan had been brought in from the shelf—when all these things were finalized we feared not if the shucks upon the corn were thick and doomed us to a winter bad and long.

Halloween Safety Tips

The U.S. Consumer Safety Product Commission, The Southeast Child Safety Institute and The Children's Hospital of Alabama have some Halloween safety tips for parents and guardians of children who plan to go trick-or-treating this Halloween:

- Warn children not to eat any of their treats before they get home. Examine all treats carefully for evidence of tampering before allowing children to eat them.
- Look for costumes, masks, beads and wigs labeled "Flame Resistant." Although this does not mean these items won't catch fire, such labeling indicates that they will resist burning and should extinguish quickly once removed from the ignition source. Flimsy materials and outfits with big, baggy sleeves or billowing skirts should be avoided to minimize the risk of contact with candles or other sources of ignition.
- Make or buy costumes light and bright enough to be clearly visible to motorists. For greater visibility in dusk or darkness, costumes can be decorated or trimmed with reflective tape which will "glow" in the beam of a car's headlights. Bags or sacks should also be light colored or decorated with reflective tape. Reflective tape is usually available in hardware, bicycle, and sporting goods stores. Children should also carry flashlights to see—and be seen—more easily.

Costumes should be short enough to prevent children from tripping and falling. Children should wear well-fitting, sturdy shoes. Mother's high heels are not a good idea for safe walking.

Hats and scarfs should be tied securely to prevent them from slipping over children's eyes.

Apply a natural mask of cosmetics rather than have a child wear a loose fitting mask which might restrict breathing or obscure vision. If a mask is used, however, make sure it fits securely and has eyeholes large enough to allow full vision.

Swords, knives, and similar costume accessories should be of soft or flexible material.

Smaller children should always be accompanied by an older person, child or an adult. All children should use the sidewalk rather than walk in the street, and they should WALK not run from house to house. Children should be cautioned against running out from between parked cars, or across lawns and yards where ornaments, furniture, or clotheslines present dangers.

Tigers Blank Andalusia

The Elba Tigers combined a ball-control offense with a stingy defense Friday night to blank the highly regarded Andalusia Bulldogs 14-0 in Elba.

The win, Elba's fourth straight, upped the Tigers' record to 5-4, while Andalusia slipped to 5-3 with the loss.

The Elba offense began its first series at its 8-yardline following an Andalusia punt and showed signs of things to come as it moved all the way to the Bulldog 30-yardline before turning the ball over on downs. Richard McKinnon gained 26 yards on 6 carries during the drive, while quarterback Stan Sauls rambled for 15 yards to keep the drive alive on key fourth-down plays. The drive stalled at the Andalusia 32, and on fourth-down-and-three Robert Wilson was stopped a yard short of the down marker, killing the threat.

Andalusia came to life following the defensive stand, and behind the running of Eric Wilson, moved quickly to the Elba 30-yardline. Wilson, a senior speedster, gained 55 yards on only two carries; however, a penalty backed the 'Dogs up, and on fourth-down-and-seven, a pass fell incomplete to stop the drive.

Elba gave the ball right back on a fumble at the Tiger 39-yardline, and once again Andalusia began a march toward the Tiger goal line. A 19-yard penalty for a late hit gave the Bulldogs a first down at the 15, and Andalusia drove to a fourth-down-and-one at the Elba 40-yardline.

Andalusia called a time-out to set up the big play, and then tried to mix up the Tigers by going to the air, only to see the pass sail over the head of the intended receiver as the Tigers again stopped the Bulldogs short of a yard.

The Elba offense got out of the hole quickly on a 30-yard run by Leon Coleman and got to the Andalusia 26 on a 16-yard pass from Sauls to Brian Free and a 15-yard penalty against the Bulldogs. The drive bogged down at the 21; however, the Tigers refused to give up and went for it on fourth down, only to see an incomplete pass kill the Tigers' second scoring opportunity of the game.

Elba received the second half kickoff and this time began a drive that would reach the Andalusia endzone.

The drive came entirely on the ground and was sparked by the running of Richard McKinnon and Robert Wilson. McKinnon gained 33 yards from his fullback post, while Wilson added 41 yards at halfback. McKinnon got the score on a 3-yard scamper, and although the extra point attempt sailed wide, Elba had taken a 6-0 lead with 5:57 left in the third quarter.

Andalusia began a drive of its own on the ensuing series and marched all the way to the Elba 30-yardline, only to lose a fumble at the 29 when Elba's Troy Sanders jarred the ball loose and recovered the pignik to give Elba the ball.

Elba got the ball and started another drive, only to be stopped at the Andalusia 37, but the Tigers got the ball right back at the Bulldog 40 when Elba's Larry Dixon recovered a 'Dog bobble, and this time marched into the endzone to put the Tigers ahead for good!

A 19-yard run by Robert Wilson and a late hit penalty against Andalusia moved the ball to the Bulldog 7-yard line, and one play later Richard McKinnon bulled over for the touchdown. Robert Wilson ran in for the two-point conversion, and with 6:14 left in the game the Tigers had the lead 14-0.

Elba linebacker Jason Hodge intercepted an Andalusia pass on the ensuing series to stop an Andalusia drive and the Tigers simply ran out the clock to give the Tigers the big 14-0 win.

Richard McKinnon gained 126 yards on 25 carries to pace the Elba offense, while Robert Wilson gained 97 yards on 15 carries and Leon Coleman added 40 yards on 5 carries.

The Andalusia offense was sparked by Eric Wilson, with 123 yards on 18 carries. The Elba defense was paced by Scott Brown with 8 tackles and 1 assist, while Robert Wilson made 6 tackles and 1 assist. Troy Sanders added 5 tackles and 1 assist and Jason Hodge made 5 tackles and 3 assists.

Kinston Bulldogs Claim 1st Win With 13-12 Thriller

By: Greg Brunson

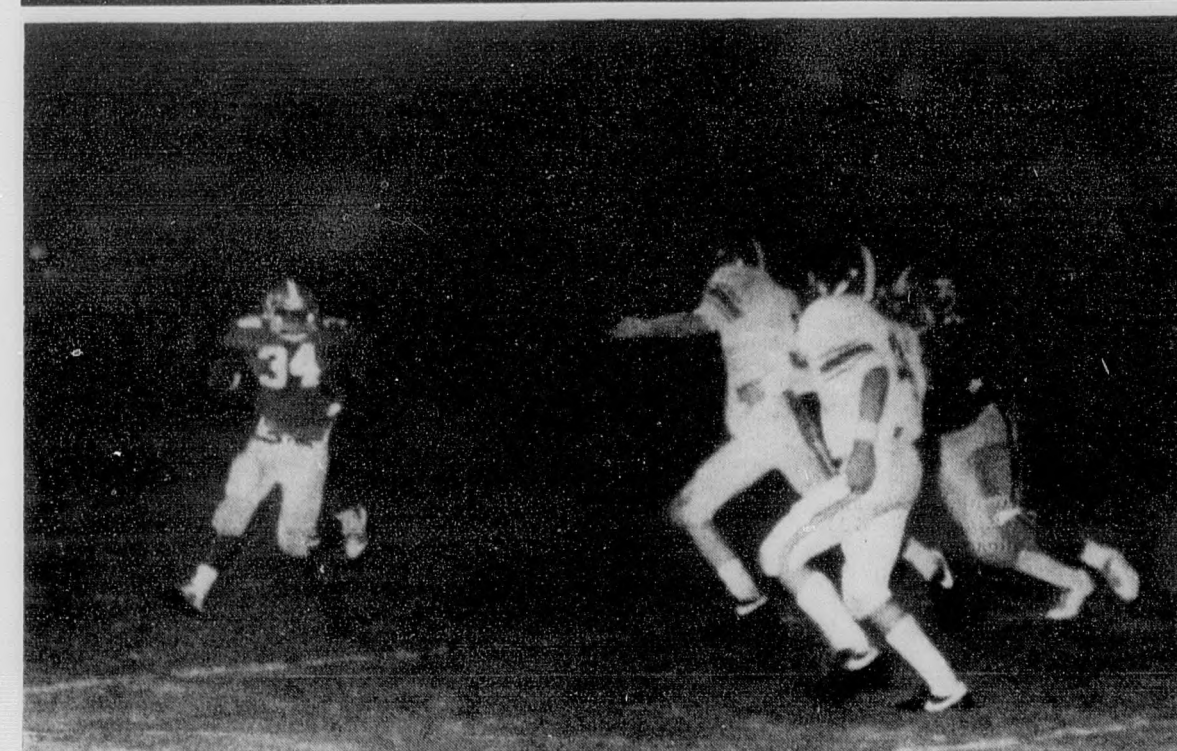

The Kinston Bulldogs, behind a fierce defense, traveled to Arton this past Friday night to claim their first win of the season. The Bulldog defense forced four Purple Cat turnovers, holding Arton to only 69 yards rushing.

The offense played their best half of the season in the second half, erasing a 6-0 deficit to claim a big 13-12 victory.

Chad Keith got the first fumble recovery for Kinston on the very first play from scrimmage. The Bulldogs were unable to take advantage of this field position as a personal foul penalty halted the drive.

An exchange of punts put Arton deep in their own territory at the 13-yardline. On third down an Arton runner broke free in the Bulldogs' secondary only to be tackled from behind by Travis Carney, causing

Zion Chapel running back Robert Smith (34) cuts outside two Goshen defenders enroute to a big gain in last week's Area 5 loss.

Zion Chapel Falls To Goshen

By: Danny Belcher

The Zion Chapel Rebels saw all hopes of a state playoff berth end last Friday night when the Goshen Eagles flew into Rebel Stadium and posted an impressive 20-0 win in a Class 2A, Area 5 battle.

Zion Chapel slipped to 3-6, 0-2 in the area, with the loss, while Goshen upped its record to 3-6, 1-2 in the area.

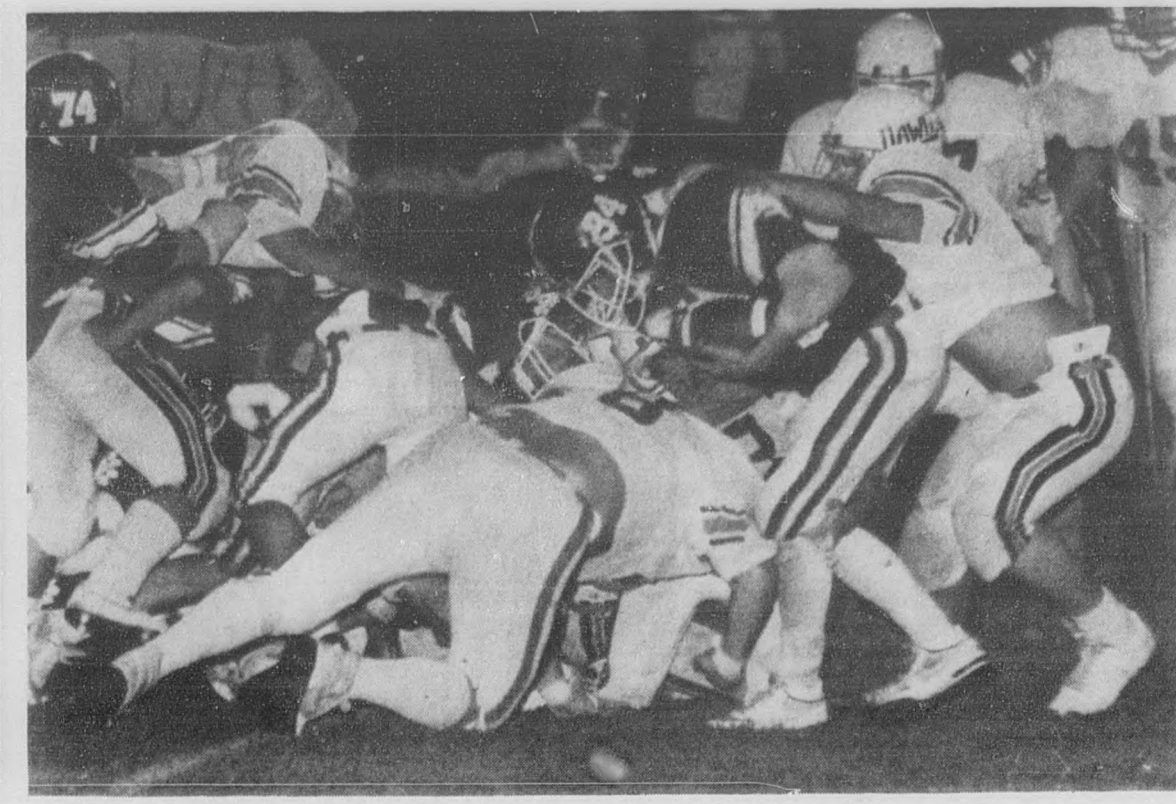

Goshen received the opening kick and showed immediately that the Eagles had come to play as they took the kick and marched 73 yards in 9 plays to get on the scoreboard. The drive came entirely on the ground and was climaxed when Mike Pelton scored on a 31-yard gallop. Johnson added the extra point to give the Eagles a 7-0 lead with 6:26 still left in the first quarter.

Zion Chapel was forced to punt on its first series, but Goshen was again ready to go and this time marched 71 yards in 12 plays to add to its lead. The Eagles again kept on the sissy turf and scored on a 1-yard plunge by Robin Snyder with 10:22 left in the second quarter. Johnson's extra point was again true and the Eagles were off to a flying start with a quick 14-0 lead.

Goshen got the ball back on another Rebel punt and stunned the Zion Chapel defense by scoring again! The third drive to paydirt covered 53 yards in 8 plays and was climaxed on a 6-yard scamper by quarterback Al Williamson. The extra point attempt failed, but with 5:15 still left in the half the Eagles were in complete command with a 20-0 lead.

Zion Chapel refused to give up in the second half, despite the score, and kept the Eagles off the score-board, but suffered four turnovers that killed any chances of a Rebel comeback, and at the final horn the Eagles owned the 20-0 win.

STOPPED FOR NO GAIN . . . Kinston defenders Dickey Adcock (8) and a host of teammates combine to stop an Arton runner in the backfield in last week's victory.

another fumble. Anthony Adcock got the recovery for Kinston. The Purple Cats' next possession ended in their third lost fumble of the half. Andy Speller made the recovery at the Kinston 45-yardline. The Bulldogs were unable to move the ball so the Purple Cats took over after a 33-yard punt by Travis Carney on their own 22-yardline. On first down Robin Bell hit Paul Bell on a crossing pattern.

Paul Bell broke to the sideline and raced down to the Kinston 1-yardline before being rolled out of bounds.

Robin Bell scored on the next play on a quarterback sneak. Larry Parker broke through to block the extra point attempt leaving the score 6-0 with 3:44 left in the half.

The two teams had an exchange of punts and Casey Prestwood intercepted a Kinston pass, but neither team threatened again in the first half.

As the second half opened, Kinston took the ball at their own 38-yardline. Seven plays later Todd Hawthorne took a handoff off left tackle and raced six yards into the end zone.

The big play in this drive was a 27-yard pass and run to Andy Speller from Dodd Hawthorne. Speller took the ball on a quick out and raced up the sideline to the 7-yardline. Derrill Berry added the extra point, giving Kinston a 7-6 lead with 9:19 left in the third quarter.

Carlton Edwards set up the next Bulldog score by intercepting a Robin Bell pass and returning it 36 yards to the Purple Cats' 11-yardline. A run on first down lost 4 yards, setting up a second down at the 15.

Dodd Hawthorne dropped to pass and spotted Travis Carney in the end zone. Carney made a fine catch between three Arton defenders for the touchdown. The point-after attempt failed, leaving the score 13-6 with 6:00 to play in the third quarter.

Another exchange of punts gave the Purple Cats excellent field position at the Kinston 40-yardline. Arton put together a 10-play drive to score with 7:25 left in the ball game. The touchdown came on a two-yard drive by Robin Bell. Paul Bell's pass attempt for the two-point conversion was broken up by Carlton Edwards, leaving the Bulldogs with a 13-12 lead.

Kinston took the ball at their own

21-yardline, and behind the running of Lee Carpenter, Mikie Glass and Todd Hawthorne moved to four straight first downs. This drive ate up the final 7:25 and the clock ran out with Kinston at the Arton 30-yardline.

Final score - Kinston 13 - Arton 12.

New Brockton Wins Area 5 Crown With 48-14 Win

By Jennifer Campbell

The New Brockton Gamecocks scored early and held on to clinch a position in the state playoffs this past Friday night as they swept past the Highland Home Flying Squadron 48-14 in an Area 5 championship game played in New Brockton.

The win upped the Gamecocks' record to 8-1 on the year and left them 2-0 in Area play. Highland Home's opening possession of the game ended in a 17-yard punt that gave the Gamecocks excellent field position at the Squadron's 43-yardline. Myron Williams opened the drive with 30 yards on two carries and three plays later it was quarterback Curt Smith who carried the ball in for the final six yards and the score. Toby Lee made the p.a.t. good and only 4:01 into the game New Brockton had taken a 7-0 lead.

The teams swapped possessions and just prior to the end of the first quarter the Gamecocks took over on downs at their own 37-yardline. Eight plays later it was running back Varrick Haynes who took the handoff and scrambled 14 yards to paydirt. Significant to the drive was a third down pass completion to tight end Toby Lee plus Haynes' 30 yards rushing. With 10:52 remaining till the half the Gamecocks owned a 14-0 margin.

The Flying Squadron's ensuing drive ended when they punted the ball out of bounds at the NB 38-yardline. Haynes and Williams took turns rolling up yardage as Myron Williams rambled for 17 yards to open the drive and another 17 yards to move the ball to the Highland Home 27-yardline.

Varrick Haynes took the handoff and went the distance on the ensuing play to give New Brockton a 20-0 lead. Lee's point-after attempt was partially blocked and fell just short, leaving the Gamecocks with the 20-0 margin with 6:38 to play in the second stanza.

Highland Home came to life on their next possession, reaching paydirt in only two plays! A late hit against New Brockton on the kickoff return gave the Squadron the ball at the Gamecocks' 43-yardline. Myron Williams opened the drive with 30 yards on two carries and three plays later it was quarterback Curt Smith who carried the ball in for the final six yards and the score. Toby Lee made the p.a.t. good and only 4:01 into the game New Brockton had taken a 20-0 lead.

The teams swapped possessions and just prior to the end of the first quarter the Gamecocks took over on downs at their own 37-yardline. Eight plays later it was running back Varrick Haynes who took the handoff and scrambled 14 yards to paydirt. Significant to the drive was a third down pass completion to tight end Toby Lee plus Haynes' 30 yards rushing. With 10:52 remaining till the half the Gamecocks owned a 14-0 margin.

The Flying Squadron's ensuing drive ended when they punted the ball out of bounds at the NB 38-yardline. Haynes and Williams took turns rolling up yardage as Myron Williams rambled for 17 yards to open the drive and another 17 yards to move the ball to the Highland Home 27-yardline.

Brantley Falls To Sweet Water

By Billy Wayne Williamson

The Brantley Bulldogs traveled to Sweet Water last Friday night to battle the second-ranked Bulldogs, and while there was plenty of water, it wasn't very "sweet," as the homecoming Bulldogs scored following two Brantley turnovers to post a soggy 14-0 win.

The win upped Sweet Water's record to 8-1, while Brantley fell to 3-5 with the loss.

Brantley failed to move on its initial possession of the game and was forced to punt. With Sweet Water putting the ball in play with good field position at the Bulldog 40-yardline, Sweet Water quickly got to the Brantley 18, but a big defensive play by Brantley's Barry Kendrick slowed the drive, and on fourth down the Bulldog defense stiffened to stop the drive and give the ball back to the Brantley offense.

Brantley's Mike Kelley recovered a Sweet Water fumble at the Sweet

Water 29 yard line in the opening stanza to give the Bulldogs a scoring chance, but the "Dogs failed to cash in on the opportunity and at the end of the half both teams went in with no points on the board.

Sweet Water recovered a Brantley fumble near midfield early in the third quarter, and the homecoming Bulldogs gave the home fans something to cheer about as Sweet Water drove 48 yards in 7 plays to get on the scoreboard.

Brooks Waters got the ball on every play of the drive and got the touchdown on a 3-yard plunge. Michael Lewis added the p.a.t., and with 6:50 left in the third quarter Sweet Water owned a slim 7-0 lead. Sweet Water's John Wilson brought the small crowd to its feet late in the stanza when he returned a Brantley punt 55 yards for an apparent touchdown; however, a clipping penalty nullified the score and kept the Bulldogs in the hunt!

Brantley suffered another fumble midway through the final stanza at its own 17-yardline, and Sweet Water needed only 2 plays to add to its lead, as on second down Brooks Waters got the call and rambled 15 yards for a score. Lewis again added the extra point and with 6:59 left in the game Sweet Water had a big 14-0 lead over the waterlogged Brantley Bulldogs.

Brantley never gave up, but Sweet Water continued its defensive power, and at the final horn it was Sweet Water with the win 14-0.

Doug Salter gained 63 yards on 17 carries to lead the Brantley attack, while Brad Kimbro added 30 yards on 12 carries. Sweet Water was led by Brooks Waters, who gained 155 yards on 35 carries and scored both touchdowns.

the final yard for the score. A pass to John Vitello was good for the two-point conversion, and with only :51 remaining before the break it was again a close game with the Gamecocks holding on to a 28-14 lead.

New Brockton ran the remaining time off the clock and was satisfied to carry the 28-14 advantage into halftime. Gamecock Myron Williams took the second half opening kickoff and raced 28 yards to the Highland Home 47-yardline where the New Brockton team mounted an 8-play scoring drive. Curt Smith hit Toby Lee for a 16-yard gainer to set up the first-and-ten at the Squadron's 10-yardline where it took Varrick Haynes only one try to reach paydirt. The p.a.t. was blocked, but with 8:36 left in the third quarter, Brockton had begun to pull away with a score of 34-14.

The next Highland Home drive ended when a Gamecock defender fell on a fumble at the Squadron's 45-yardline. Three plays later Varrick Haynes broke over the left side and cut back up the middle for a 40-yard romp and the Gamecocks' sixth touchdown of the evening. Lee's extra point was on target, and with 5:39 remaining in the third quarter New Brockton had taken control with a 41-14 lead.

On their ensuing drive the Squadron seemed headed for paydirt only to be plagued by penalties and were forced to punt the ball away. Taking over on their own 33-yardline the Gamecocks went 67 yards in three plays for their final score of the night.

Myron Williams ripped off 17 yards to open the drive and carry the ball to midfield. Haynes broke loose on the next play for 40 yards all the way to the Highland Home 10-yardline. Williams got the next TD. Toby Lee hit the point after and with 2:06 left in the third stanza New Brockton boasted a 48-14 margin.

The scoreless fourth quarter saw the Squadron drive as deep as the Gamecock 27-yardline only to be held by the defensive efforts of Brockton's Toby Lee and Scott Maddox. The Gamecock second string offense took the field in the final stanza behind quarterback Donnie Smith and rolled up three first downs to wind down the clock and preserve the 48-14 victory.

Gamecock Varrick Haynes led all rushers with 192 yards on 19 carries while teammate Myron Williams added 171 yards on 19 attempts. Quarterback Lavon Davis had 48 yards on 12 tries to lead Highland Home.

The Gamecocks travel to Zion Chapel this Friday night to close out the regular season as they face the Rebels in Area action. Game time is 7:30.

GTE Customers To Receive New Form Of Statement

General Telephone customers in Ozark, Enterprise and the surrounding area will see a change in their billing statement next month. A new form will permit faster and more efficient processing of bill payments. Beginning with November billing statements, customers will no longer receive a computer card. Instead, they will have to tear off a stub on the last page of the bill and return it along with their payment.

"Customers will benefit from this new procedure," said John Nobles, customer service manager in Ozark. "By crediting payment to their bills more quickly, more people will avoid the inconvenience of having their telephone service discontinued, and won't have the added expense of paying a reconnect fee." As part of the new procedure, customers will send their payments to a different location. The new address is preprinted on the back of the payment stub which customers will place in the envelope window.

"Most customers won't even notice the new address since it's already printed on the envelope and stub," said Nobles. "But in case they do, we want them to know there is a different mailing address. The new payment process is part of General Telephone's continuing effort to provide efficient and cost-effective services to customers, Nobles said.

Nursing Home Spotlight

With Shirley Wise

Well, here we are again - already at the end of another month! October almost gone and November upon us! I repeat - where does the time go?

This week - the week of October 30 - one day before Halloween, we're visiting Miss Nettie Ruth Clark, a native of the Jack Community.

Miss Nettie is a sweet, polite and friendly lady with gray hair, caught up neatly in a bun on top of her head and she had bluish-gray eyes.

She is a very alert and well-educated lady.

Her eyesight is very poor and her hearing is greatly impaired but she answered all our questions in a firm, clear, resonant voice. The day we visited her she was "fresh as a daisy" in a brightly flowered gown and looked most angelic.

She is 93 years old, having been born April 10, 1893, one of nine children of Mr. and Mrs. W.F. Clark. Mrs. Clark was the former Anna Weed. Mr. Clark was in the turpentine distilling business, and farmed.

Miss Nettie has only one living sister - Mrs. Syble Walker, who makes her home in the Jack Community. Her husband was the late Burl Walker.

The remaining deceased brothers and sisters are: Bennie Clark, who was living in Jack at the time of his death and was married to the former Pearl Thomey, a sweetheart of a lady whom we met in this column several weeks and who is now deceased.

Mary Brown, who was married to the late W.J. Brown, and was a resident of Jack.

Annie Gibson, who was married to the late Clarence Gibson and was living in Troy.

Petty Hudson, married to the late Jack Hudson and lived in New Brockton.

Winnie Wood, whose husband was A.D. Wood, also deceased, and they lived in Palatka, Fla.

Johnny Clark, who lived in Enterprise, and was married to the former Lizzie Paul, also deceased, and Oscar Clark, who was a resident of Jack, and was married to the former Lizzie Paul, also deceased.

Mr. Johnny and Mr. Oscar married sisters.

Children, grandchildren and great-grandchildren from all the above make Miss Nettie aunt to 27 nieces and nephews, some of whom are deceased; great aunt and great great aunt to countless other nieces and nephews, all who lovingly call her "Aunt Nettie."

Miss Nettie received her early education at the Double Head School, where she attended through the eighth grade, and then attended a girls school in Troy for two years. She has only been "back home" about 10 years, having returned here from Ft. Gates, Fla. where she had lived, she told us, for 43 years, making her living as housekeeper for the Day family.

Prior to that she lived in Winter Haven, Fla., for five years where she was a dressmaker with Madame Beaufee, a French dressmaker. They did exquisite work - some of the finest French handsewing, as well as on the machine.

About her 43-year tenure with the Day family, she told us, "He was an auctioneer and dealt in real estate. He had orange groves, invested in the stock market - they were very nice people to work for. It was wonderful work. You were more or less on your own and did what you wanted to do; but they were very strict. You had to watch what you said and did. A friend of mine was overseer of the orange grove and I managed the house."

A niece, Vivian Lee, said, "They were just wonderful to Aunt Nettie. Treated her just like family; she receives the sweetest letters from the children. They have remained in touch with her."

When we asked Miss Nettie just where Ft. Gates was located, as we've never heard of it (course there are many things we've never heard of), she said, "It is located 60 miles south of St. Augustine on the St. Johns River."

For a little bit of nostalgia and history - we vacationed in St. Augustine and surrounding areas one summer and I remembered Jimmy telling us something unusual about the St. Johns River; when I asked Miss Nettie, she confirmed the fact that it is the only river in the United States which flows to the north, all others flowing southward.

Miss Nettie told us, "I like yellow roses, but I can't say I especially like one special flower - I like them all." In response to our question of her favorite flower, she had a green vase filled with yellow silk roses on the bedside table in her room.

For her favorite color, she said "yellow," and her season preference: "I like them all - I can't say I like any special one, but I think fall is the most impressive time of the year."

Her favorite holiday is "Christmas," naturally! - as it is for almost everyone. To repeat, I guess there remains some of the child in all of us regarding the magic of that special time of the year.

"Fried chicken, shrimp and steak" head her list of favorite foods, but she added, "I like all kinds of food, if it is prepared well, I like everything."

Miss Nettie Ruth Clark

those things - especially cooking."

When we asked if she liked the nursing home, she replied with a chuckle, "No, I'm sorry to say," but hastened to add, "I'm not saying anything against it - it's a wonderful place for old folks who have nowhere else to go or no one to care for them. It's alright, tho."

Another niece, Roxanne Smart, of the Jack Community, with whom we talked, had the following nice things to say about her Aunt Nettie: "She is a very patient person, good-natured, friendly. She is an excellent seamstress-dressmaker and I remember, she loved to cook."

Vivian added to this: "She was a real fine lady, a sweet person who would do anything for anybody - she would help anybody I just can't say enough good things about her. She's just always been a sweet, fine, wonderful person."

When we asked her advice to the younger generation, she answered, "Work hard; we worked hard when we were growing up. Be kind to everyone. Be nice - share with others. My father was a good, kind man and gave money to people who needed it. He helped everybody he could and was kind to everybody."

When I read this to Nettie, she agreed, and added, "My granddaddy carpentered and he would make the coffins for those who died in the community and surrounding area, and my grandmother made what was then called 'curtains' to go around the coffin. Aunt Nettie and her parents would 'lay out' the dead person - you know, go to the deceased person's home and prepare the body for burial."

Visit them today!

***Birthdays wishes to: Miss Mattie Goodson. Although she is no longer at the nursing home, but is residing at her home in New Brockton, friends at the nursing home, along with yours truly, would still like to say, "Happy birthday, Miss Mattie!"

***Thought for the week: "We do not inherit the world from our parents; we borrow it from our children."
